

Member of Advisory Board of Eni S.p.A.

Philip Lambert is Chief Executive Officer of Lambert Energy Advisory Ltd (LEA), which is one of London's leading M&A and Strategic Advisory firms, having been advisors on approximately $70 billion of Energy M&A transactions in the last few years.

LEA was founded in 1999 and is headquartered in Mayfair, London. LEA also has senior representation in Oslo, Kuala Lumpur, Moscow and Tokyo. LEA gives strategic and M&A advice to a select group of the world's leading NOC's, IOC's, Independents and Utilities.

Prior to 1999, Philip was head of the Global Energy Investment Banking team in a leading European bank, Dresdner Kleinwort. In the 1990's his work was mainly focused on privatisation mandates in the Global Energy sector, inter alia, in Russia (Gazprom, Tatneft), Hungary (MOL), Spain (Repsol, Enagas), Poland (PKN), etc.

Philip was born in 1961 in London. He graduated from Edinburgh University in 1984 and has been involved in the financial/advisory side of the Energy Industry ever since.
