

It is impossible to thank all the people who, one way or another, have helped me over so many years. Historically, I should first mention my friends Joan Rosell, Hanspeter Luterbacher, and Jorge Ferrer with whom I started working in the Pyrenees in the mid 60's. Then, I must thank the dozens of my undergraduate and graduate students from the universities of Turin, Parma, Geneva, Barcelona and Milan and the hundreds of colleagues from university or industry with whom I worked on a great number of field trips (especially those I led for Petrobras, Eni, Total and AAPG). It would be impossible to name all of them.

Let me single out for their interest and help in my research and their many useful and sometimes lively discussions Mario Carminatti, Giancarlo Davoli, Franco Fonnesu, Paolo Dattilo, Emilio Tebaldi, Marco Figoni, Guido Ghibaudo, George Allen, Pete Vail, Bill Normark, Franco Ricci Lucchi, Philippe Crumeyrolle, Carlo Cazzola, Chantal Treves, Eduard Remacha, Maria Rita Estrada, Rhodri Johns, Michel Seguret, Pierre Labaume, Maria Sgavetti, Stefano Angella, Roberto Tinterri, Stefano Dominici, Leonardo Legarreta, Carlos Gulisano, Alex Wahery, Manlio Ghielmi, Stefano Mora, Marco Fonnesu, Davide Carè, Salvatore Milli, and especially the late C.V. (Chuck) Campbell.

Next, I would like to thank all my Spanish friends who made my long field seasons there a marvellous human experience. Let me mention first the late and unforgettable Señora Pepita and Señor Ramon, the owners of the Siglo XX Hotel in Tremp, which I always considered my second home. And, together with them, the owners of many small hotels, restaurant, and inns which offered me hospitality and friendship, not to mention good food and wine.

I should mention Vicente and Joaquin and their wives (Hotel del Esera, Santa Liestra), José Antonio (Hotel Apolo, Ainsa), Señora Rosa and her much missed husband, Ramon (Hostal Rio Ara, Fiscal), Pepito (Condes de Ribagorza, Puente de Montañana), the owners of the small inn in Cajegar and those of the restaurant Cal Quel (Fontllonga), and many more besides.

And all my friends in Tremp with whom I spent unforgettable evenings. Lastly, heartfelt thanks are due to the Municipality of Tremp who in 1992 granted me the Silver Medal: an honour of which I'm very proud.
