

Eni's CEO Paolo Scaroni meets with President Gurbanguly Berdimukhamedov of Turkmenistan

San Donato Milanese (Milan), 4 February 2014 – Eni's CEO, Paolo Scaroni, has today met with the President of Turkmenistan, Gurbanguly Berdimukhamedov, in Asgabat to discuss Eni's projects and activities in the country with a particular focus on potential new offshore exploration activities in the Caspian Sea.

During the meeting, they also discussed the possibility of prolonging Eni's activities in the Country by extending the length of its onshore concessions, and of unlocking value from Turkmenistan's natural gas resources also through the utilisation of gas to liquids technology.

Eni started its activities in Turkmenistan with the purchase of the British company Burren Energy plc in 2008. In 2012, Eni's production averaged 11 kboe/d.
