

The President of Mozambique, Filipe Nyusi, meets Eni's CEO, Claudio Descalzi

Maputo (Mozambique), 6 May 2015 - The President of the Republic of Mozambique, Filipe Nyusi, for the first time since his appointment last January, met today in Maputo Eni's CEO Claudio Descalzi.

The meeting was also an opportunity for Eni's CEO to update the President on the progress of ongoing projects in Mozambique over the development of the Area 4, where resources of approximately 85 Trillion cubic feet of gas in place have been so far discovered.

Eni has been present in Mozambique since 2006, when, following an international tender, the company was granted Area 4 offshore block located in the Rovuma basin in the north of the country.
