

NIGERIA-OPL 245 TRIAL: ENI, CLAUDIO DESCALZI AND TOP MANAGERS FULLY ACQUITTED BY THE COURT OF MILAN SINCE THERE WAS NO CASE

San Donato Milanese (Milan), 17 March 2021 – In relation to the Nigeria-Opl245 trial, Eni welcomes today's judgment of full acquittal of all charges, since there was no case, by the Court of Milan.

After almost three years of trial, the judgment by the Court has finally established that the company, the CEO Claudio Descalzi and the management involved in the proceedings have all behaved in a lawful and correct manner.

Eni has throughout maintained its full confidence in the Court's fair and balanced investigation. Today, Eni expresses its gratitude for the trust placed by its stakeholders throughout the course of the trial, particularly in upholding the company's management and the conduct of its business, and respecting its reputation.
