

Erika Mandraffino

Director External Communication

Born in Syracuse in 1972, mother of two, she was appointed Director External Communication of Eni on November 1, 2020.

Experience

After graduating in European Business Administration in London, where she lived almost uninterruptedly from 1991 to 2005, she began her career as a corporate and financial communications consultant at Ludgate Communications where she worked from 1996 to 1999.

Before joining Eni in 2006 as head of the financial and international press office, to then become head of Eni Group media relations in 2011, she worked as Director at the Brunswick Group in London, managing the international communication of European corporates (in Italy, Spain, Holland, Portugal) during crisis situations, mergers, acquisitions and IPOs.

From 2000 to 2001 she worked as a communication consultant at Barabino & Partners in Rome.

From October 2013 to February 2015 she was Saipem's Senior Vice President of Institutional Relations and Communication, where she built the external relations department reporting directly to the CEO and managed the company's communication in a period of crisis.

In 2015 she was called back to Eni as Senior Vice President Media Relations and Corporate Publishing, a position held until April 2016 when she took on the role of Senior Vice President Media Relations and Social Networks.

In 2018 she became Senior Vice President Global Media Relations and Crisis Communications.

From 1 July 2020 she was Eni's Director Media Relation reporting directly to the CEO until she assumed the current role.

She has also been Chairman of Versalis S.p.A from May 2018 until January 2021.
