

PRIVACY INFORMATION NOTICE FOR SUPPLIERS/CONTRACTORS

In accordance with the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (hereinafter: GDPR), Eni Suisse S.A. (hereinafter: Company or Data Controller) sets out below the Privacy information notice on the processing of your personal data - obtained directly from you and/or obtained from third parties in the context of our contractual relationship.

In this context, personal data relating to you, your employees, associates and subcontractors can be or must be collected and processed.

1. Identity and contact details of the Data Controller

The Data Controller is Eni Suisse S.A., with registered office in Lausanne and can be contacted at the following address: Av. de Gratta-Paille 1, 1018 Lausanne, or at the following email address: dataprotection.ch@eni.com.

2. Contact details of the Data Protection Officer (hereinafter: DPO)

The Company has appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be contacted at the following email address: DPO@eni.com.

3. The purposes of data processing and its legal basis

a. Necessary legal purposes – data processing is required to comply with the Data Controller's legal obligations

Your personal data may be processed without your consent, in cases where this is necessary to fulfil the obligations of law, as well as standards, codes or procedures approved by the Authorities and other competent Institutions. In addition, your personal data may be processed to comply with requests from the competent administrative or judicial authority and, more generally, public entities in compliance with the obligations of law.

Your personal data will also be processed for the purposes related to the evaluation of the product/service:

- to assess the technical, economic and financial suitability of your product/service, and to verify that you fulfill all the requisites laid down by applicable legislation;
- to allow any contractual relationship established to be managed correctly in regulatory, technical and economic terms.

Because the communication of your personal data for the above purposes is required, failure to do so will make it impossible to establish the contractual relationship with the Company.

b. Purposes of compliance with and management of the contract

Your personal data will be processed for the purposes necessary for the proper management of the contractual relationship with the Company.

c. Defence of a legal claim

In addition, your personal data will be processed whenever it is necessary to ascertain, exert or defend a legal claim of the Data Controller or of Eni subsidiaries in a court.

4. Recipients of personal data

For the purposes listed in Section 3, the Data Controller may disclose your personal data to third parties, such as, for example, those belonging to the following categories:

- Authorities or public agencies for the fulfilment of the obligations envisaged by law;

- other Eni Subsidiaries, for administrative reasons related to the management of the contract/relationship;
- insurance companies responsible for the settlement of claims;
- companies specialized in credit recovery;
- companies specialized in the management of business information or related to credit, or advertising and promotion;
- other companies with whom the Data Controller has agreements of various types.

You may rest assured that the Data Controller will take the utmost care to ensure that the communication of your personal data to the above recipients involves only the data required to accomplish the specific purposes for which it is intended.

5. Transfer of personal data abroad

In the context of the contractual relations between Eni S.p.A. and its subsidiaries, for some of the purposes listed in Section 3 above, your personal data may be transferred abroad, including through inclusion in databases shared and managed by third parties both within and outside of Eni's scope of control. The management of the database and the processing of this data are performed only for the purposes for which it was collected and with maximum respect for the privacy and security standards described in applicable personal data protection laws.

Whenever your personal data is transferred abroad, the Data Controller shall take every suitable and necessary contractual measure to guarantee an adequate level of personal data protection in accordance with this Privacy Statement, including, among other things, the Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission.

6. Data retention period

Your data will be kept for ten years from the termination of our contractual relationship in order to allow the Company to defend itself against possible claims in relation to the contract. At the end of this period, all data will be deleted or otherwise irreversibly de-identified, unless the continued retention of some or all of the data is required by law.

7. Rights of data subjects

As the data subject, you are entitled to ask the Data Controller to give you access to your personal data and to the information relating to its processing; you have the right to rectify any inaccurate personal data, as well as, taking into account the purposes of the processing, complete any incomplete personal data, including by providing a supplementary statement.

You also have the right to delete your personal data, the right to its portability and to restrict its processing in the cases provided for in law.

You can exercise the above-mentioned rights by contacting Eni Suisse S.A. or by sending an email to the email address data.protection.ch@eni.com, or by writing to the Data Protection Officer DPO@eni.com.

You also have the right to address you to the competent data protection Authority if your data has been processed unlawfully.
